MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

PICK THE WINNER.
The foolish man sits down
Without the wish to strive,
And twirls his thumbs and waits
For good luck to arrive.
The wise man bears his arms
And works to make the way
A smooth one for the good
Luck that may come some day.

THOMAS L. EWAN & COMPANY SELL LARGE FARM.

Thomas L. Ewan & Company, the Maysville real estate agents, sold Monday for Marion M. Rhodes of Elizaville, his farm of 230 acres, located on the Ewing Station and Evans Mills turnpike, two miles from Elizaville, to Wood A. Browning of Elizaville, formerly a Mason county man.

This is one of the best improved farms in Fleming county and is said to have more fresh tobacco land than any farm of its size in this section of Kentucky.

This midwinter land deal is a pointer as to the good times coming. Land is land these days and is steadily advancing.

CAPTAIN LESLIE HILL IS HOME.

(Aberdeen Gretna Green.)

Captain Leslie Hill of the U. S. Golden Rod arrived here last Saturday to spend a few weeks with relatives. He has been in the Iowa district the past year. Leslie has now been in the employ of the government for about eight years on the steamer Golden Rod. He is not only a good steamboat man but a clever gentleman.

HON. W. D. COCHRAN, GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY, SOUNDS WELL.

(Lexington Leader.)

Mr. W. D. Cochran of Maysville was in Lexington yesterday. Some mighty good Republicans think Mr. Cochran looks like a Governor ought to look, but Mr. Cochran says he is too busy to even think about running for office.

ANOTHER MAYSVILLE BOY IS MAKING GOOD.

Mr. Earl Dora of Cleveland, O., is here to spend the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. Alice Dora of Forest avenue, and other relatives. Earl is making good in Cleveland is now employed by the First National Bank in that city.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Forest Avenue M. E. church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. A. F. Feltz of East Second street.

KAISER IMPROVED AND WILL REDOUBLE HIS WAR EFFORTS

Paris On the Blink.

Paris, December 15.—All the street lamps in Paris were extinguished at midnight. Two Zeppelin dirigible balloons are said to have been sighted at Amiens proceeding in the direction of Paris.

Germans Intrenching Themselves.

Rotterdam, December 15.—The newspaper La Belgique says that the retreat of the Germans toward prepared positions east of the Yser is confirmed. Masses of troops have been concentrated along a line embracing Bruges, Thiel and Courtrai, with general headquarters at Thiel.

England Ready For Teuton Invasion.

London, December 15.—General Baden-Powell shares the opinion of many other military experts who believe that Germany fully expects to invade England.

He expects that the kaiser will direct his activities toward the commercial cities in the north of England, rather than toward London and the resort cities of the south.

In the opinion of General Baden-Powell, the German emperor will endeavor to land at least 90,000 troops in England.

"I knew that the general idea is," said General Baden-Powell, "that the attempt to invade England will be made on the coast of Norfolk or Suffolk. Personally, I think that the Yorkshire coast is more likely, for the Germans will first desire to invade the industrial centers of the north.

Poland Declared To Be Becoming Another Belgium In Suffering.

Petrograd, December 15.—Through great snowdrifts in the region west of Warsaw the Germans are hurling 500,000 men upon the Russian line, from Iowa Glowno, in the greatest attempt that they have yet made to open the way to the capital of Poland.

They are making night and day attacks.

Poland is fast becoming another Belgium in point of suffering, while the opposing armies drive each other back and forth occupying and recapturing cities and villages and inflicting on the inhabitants bombardment after bombardment.

More than 500 Polish towns have been ruined, according to various accounts. Each army accuses the other of looting and cruelty.

NEXT TO COLDEST DECEMBER ON RECORD.

(Tuesday's Lexington Leader.) It develops that just 13 years ago today, December furnished a counterpart of the frigid weather of this morning, when the mercury went just a shade lower, and most people who shivered in the cold gray dawn of this morning are ready to petition the weather cleric to postpone a repetition of the brand for another 13 years.

ACCIDENTALLY CUT HIMSELF.

Mr. John Coughlin of East Second street returned from his farm yesterday with a lot of fresh meat and while cutting same up the knife slipped, cutting a deep gash in his wrist. The shock of the cut together with the intense cold caused him to faint, and Dr. Brand was called and soon brought him around all right. He is still housed up this morning, but is reported resting well.

JACK FROST IS KING.

Last night was the coldest of the winter, but this morning the mercury showed 3 degrees warmer than Tuesday morning, the figure being 6 degrees below zero.

There is much suffering among the poor of this city because of the intense cold.

BURGLAR KILLS ATLANTA LAW-YER.

Atlanta, Ga., December 15.—Charles B. Reynolds, a lawyer, was shot and almost instantly killed early today in a revolver battle with a burglar in his home here. Reynolds fired four times before he was killed. The burglar escaped.

The auctioneer at the Home warehouse is Colonel O. G. Rucker, one of the best in the business. It's worth a visit to go out and "hear him" sell tobacco.

The coasting continues fine and the kids are enjoying it on West Fourth, Market, Limestone and West Third streets.

Now do the wise thing by seeing the stock of Dolls and Toys and buying early at O'Keefe's.

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.

HEAR HIM--WHO IS HE?

Yesterday in the Mason Circuit Court the following cases were disposed of:

In the case of Mike Brown against Thomas Morgan it was adjudged that the plaintiff, Mike Brown, recover from the defendant, Thomas Morgan, the sum of $234 with 6 per cent interest thereon from August 1, 1913, until paid, and his costs.

In the case of Thomas Mullikin against Thomas Ryan it was adjudged that the plaintiff, Thomas Mullikin, recover of the defendant, Thomas Ryan, the sum of $200 with 6 per cent interest from December 15, 1914, and his costs.

In the case of Sylvester A. Long, the popular and experienced lecturer, will be at the High School Wednesday night, December 16. After having appeared at Austin, Minn., for five different times, the Herald of that city says, "Long leads. Perhaps the most popular all-round lecturer on our program." The fact that he has appeared several times on the platform of such cities as Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Washington is evidence of his popularity and charms. His lectures are said to be "Mosaics of great truths laid in a cement of humor." Reserved seats at Williams Drug Store.

In the case of Grimes and Stakelin against Robert Taylor it was adjudged that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the sum of $641.20 with 6 per cent interest from December 15, 1914, and his costs.

In the case of John B. Shaw against C. & O. Railway Company, the defendant produced and tendered its bill of exceptions and it was ordered to lie over for exceptions.

BRYAN, THE TRICK MULE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CIRCUS.

When anything goes wrong with the Kaiser's plans he turns in and lies Belgium some more and when there's a blowout in the old Democratic party Marse Henry, figuratively speaking, kicks the stuffin' outer one W. J. Bryan. In Mr. Watterson's latest he says of the millionaire comoner of Lincoln:

"That Mr. Bryan is a man of judgment, characteristically infirm, we are bound to believe for the reason that he has shown it alike in his political vacinations and his personal dealings. But in matters relating solely to his own interest, he has been circumspect, to a degree; albeit, at the same time regardless of other interests. He especially understands the show-business. Thus, without the least concern where, or whom, it hits, he rushes to the front now with National Prohibition and Woman Suffrage as paramount issues. His pretext is as always, the Democratic party. But that is transparently absurd. The real and obvious reason is that they insure him certain chautauqua engagements and paying audiences."

"Even the grape juice incident was thrifit, wine being the most expensive item in diplomatic entertainments, and, then having cut one-third off the cost of his living, he coolly claims that $12,000 a year is still insufficient for his support, and proceeds to double, or treble it by the most flagrant neglect of official duties, the stipend for which he knew when he accepted office."

"None of these delinquencies—shocking delinquencies—can be explained on the World's hypothesis of 'noble ideals' of any kind of service, national or international. As a common, every-day observation they show Mr. Bryan a self-seeking man, after everything in sight and out of sight, the money-bug alternating with the office-bee, in warping his sense of propriety and obscuring his valuation of the great place given him to keep him out of mischief and to bring him into some kind of proportion to that Democratic party which he pretends to hold so dear."

DEMOCRATS ALARMED.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun says that administration leaders are greatly concerned about the revenue, and fear that they may be compelled to revise the taxation laws before the next Presidential election. They have new cause for alarm in the fact that in May, 1916, sugar will go on the free list. Sugar is the largest single item of revenue. Under Republican tariffs it yielded nearly $60,000,000 a year. The Democratic tariff provided for a sliding scale of reduction on the product, with the stipulation that it should go on the free list in 1916. Furthermore, the yield from the income tax this year is likely to fall off materially because of the hard times. There is, therefore, talk among some Democrats about restoring the sugar duty. A serious effort will also be made to keep down appropriations, but without much prospect of success.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

To an active external commerce the protection of a naval force is indispensable. This is manifest with regard to wars in which a state is itself a party. But besides this, it is our experience that the most sincere neutrality is not a sufficient guard against the depredations of nations at war. To secure respect to a neutral flag requires a naval force organized and ready to vindicate it from insult or aggression. This may even prevent the necessity of going to war by discouraging belligerent powers from committing such violations of the rights of the neutral party as may, first or last, leave no other option.—From the Eighth Annual Address of George Washington, May 28, 1796.

THIS DON'T LISTEN RIGHT.

In President Wilson's recent message to Congress he opened with this four-flush sentence:

"Gentlemen of the Congress, the session upon which you are now entering will be the closing session of the Sixty-third Congress, a Congress, I venture to say, which will long be remembered for the great body of thoughtful and constructive work which it has done, in loyal response to the thought and needs of the country. I should like in this address to review the notable record and try to make adequate assessment of it; but no doubt we stand too near the work that has been done and are ourselves too much part of it to play the role of historians toward it."

And further along he makes the following admission and begs Congress to right the wrong it has done by saying:

"I have come to ask you to remedy and correct these mistakes and omissions, even at this short session of a Congress which would certainly seem to have done all the work that could reasonably be expected of it. The time and the circumstances are extraordinary, and so must our efforts be also."

Surely the schoolmaster forgot himself for a season. If "the Congress" made such a "notable record," why should it have any mistakes to correct?

Probably Mr. Bryan is one of the mistakes the President is apologizing for.

HOW IT DON'T WORK.

We find in the Boston Advertiser some instructive figures concerning government ownership of railroads in Russia. There are 13,000 miles of private lines and 28,000 miles of public lines. The rates on both government and private roads are high and the wages low. An employee's wage for one day in Russia will purchase 10 miles third class travel; in America an employee's wage for one day will purchase 12 1/2 miles first class travel. Yet the cost of operation on the government lines consumes 70 per cent of the gross revenue; on the private lines 59 per cent. The government roads employ 203 men for every 10 miles of track, while the private lines employ only 169 men for the same number of miles and handling a larger traffic.

AS TO DUNS.

A subscriber once received a dun through the postoffice and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him a few duns of his own—one for paper, one for type, one for fuel, and several others. "Now," said the editor, "I didn't get mad when these came, because I knew that all I had to do was to ask several reliable gentlemen like you to come and help me out, and then I could settle all of them." When the subscriber saw how it was he relented, paid up and renewed for another year.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

It is said that Confusionists are soon to erect a $100,000 building in New York City, and that there are over forty heathen temples under the stars and stripes burning incense to foreign deities. Are we not sowing the seeds of our own dissolution in permitting such things in our own fair land? Or, is it the weakness of our own Christianity that Confusionism and other heathenisms can find a place in our very midst.

Alloverishness.

A child said to her mother one day, "Mother, I feel nervous."

"Nervous?" said the mother. "What is nervous?" "Why, it's being in a hurry all over."

A Juvenile Censor.

A little boy of four was once told to say his grace, but objected to doing so on the ground that his mother had not said hers, adding, as he said so, the awful impeachment: "Mother never does anything that God tells her to."

Full Moon.

The young man was trying to play sober. He sat with the young lady on the front steps. He studied for a long time, trying to think of something that would illustrate his sobriety. Finally he looked up, and solemnly said: "The (hic) moon's as full as a goose, ain't it?"

THE PASSING OF A GREAT AMERICAN STATESMAN.

(Courier-Journal)

Sereno E. Payne of New York, whose sudden death in Washington is reported, had the unhappiness to outlive the political situation in which he was deservedly prominent. This is a somewhat strikingly similarly between the circumstances of his death—he died alone in his apartments and nobody was immediately found who knew the address of a relative to whom word of his death might be sent—and the circumstances of his late political life.

In the days of Republican supremacy Mr. Payne was one of a group of three Republican members of the House sometimes called "The Triumvirate." The three Representatives were Gen. Grosvenor of Ohio; John Dalzell of Pennsylvania, and the then chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, the Repub-

HERRMANN PREDICTS GOOD BASE BALL.

President Herrmann, home from the big meeting, says that nothing much happened and that full publicity was given all that was really done. He explains that it has always been the custom to merely suggest or outline things at the December meeting; the magnates then have two months to think the various measures over, exchange ideas and make up their minds as to final action at the February gathering. While nothing was done in the way of war proclamation, the sentiment of both major leagues towards the Federal is unanimous and perfectly understood. "It was not in the least annoyed by Mr. Herzog's request for a raise in salary," says Herrmann, "and could see his side of the question perfectly—that he was doing about three men's work as manager, captain and shortstop—and, on his side, Mr. Herzog was reasonable when he saw how the financial balance stood and how difficult it would be for the club to assume added expenditures. He'll make good. I'm positive, and we'll see some baseball out there at the yard next summer!"—Times-Star.

SON OF DEAN LEE

Beaten By Paddle—Head Master At Los Angeles Says It Was Done For the Good of the Boy After Other Methods Had Failed.

Los Angeles.—The head master and two instructors of the Harvard military school here were put under arrest at Los Angeles on charges of battery, preferred by the Rev. Baker P. Lee, rector of Christ church and one of the best known Episcopal clergymen in California, and who was formerly dean of Christ Church Cathedral at Lexington.

Dr. Lee charges that the instructors beat his son, Baker P. Lee, Jr., a student at the school, with a heavy wooden paddle, inflicting injuries necessitating medical attention.

Rev. R. B. Gooden, head master, and H. R. Downing and Pesse Mitchell, instructors, were arrested and released on bail. Rev. Mr. Gooden said that the punishment inflicted upon young Lee was "for the good of the church and the school; we had tried every form of punishment, and used this as a last resort."

SOME GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES.

(Lexington Leader.) Some one has said that "opportunity knocks but once."

That observation, however, must have been made before the local organization known as the Associated Charities began operations, or prior to the advent of the present very energetic secretary of that body, because elsewhere in this issue of the Leader it will be seen that Opportunity has been made to knock twelve times.

Those who in this favored land have prospered during the year far beyond their immediate necessities will find in this list of twelve opportunities chances to invest a little money that will pay more in dividends of a wholesome sort than most anything they can purchase just at this season.

For example: Opportunity No. 1 says that $7.50 will care for a mother and six children all of Christmas week—$1.50; food, $5; coal, $1.

Who bids for this? Read the list. It is as full of tragedy and of tears as the story of Cosette.

WAR AND EDUCATION.

Switzerland is the only nation that spends more upon her schools than for military purposes. Even our own enlightened, isolated and peaceful nation spends millions more upon army and navy than upon education. Perhaps Switzerland is fortunate in being an inland country, and thus without use for a navy, else she would not be so distinguished. One of our modern dreadnaughts costs $28,000,000 before it is scrapped—a sum sufficient to furnish a college course to 28,000 aspiring American youths before whom poverty stands like an insurmountable barrier.—Christian Evangelist.

No Question What It's Made Of

The ingredients are plainly stated on every tin of

and also in the advertising.

Choice whole wheat is separated into kernel and outer-coat—combined with a small amount of whole some molasses, roasted separately and skilfully blended to give Postum a delicious, snappy flavour similar to high-grade Java coffee. But Postum is free from caffeine and tannin, the drugs that make coffee harmful.

Anyone with signs of nervousness, indigestion, heart flutter, sleeplessness, or other ills so often caused by coffee, can learn something of value by quitting coffee and using Postum—

Delicious--Healthful--Economical

Postum now comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be boiled to bring out the rich flavour. 15c and 25c pkgs. Instant Postum—soluble form, made in the cup with hot water instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are delicious, cost per cup about the same, sold by Grocers everywhere.

TOBACCO

on our opening sale did not sell up to the expectation of a number of sellers, due in a measure to the extremely soft condition of a large percentage of the Tobacco on sale.

In some instances, however, we had expressions of satisfaction, and we confidently believe the difference between the "Growers' Ideas" and the present market will adjust itself as soon as Tobacco begins to appear in good merchantable order. We anticipate a free movement of Tobacco before the holidays and we want your business. We are ready to serve you at all times to the limit of our ability.
